MEDICINAL

THE BALANCE OF HEALTH

Is often very much against the wife. Her strength is undermined, she loses flesh and her energy and courage slowly leak away from her. Gradually the comradeship of husband and wife is broken up. At first he takes his solitary pleasures reluctantly, but later he hardly seems to remember the old days over which his wife in her weakness mourns daily.

Women who find their health failing, and womanly ailments fastening on them, should promptly begin the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It corrects irregularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness for about two years," writes Mrs. Emma Richardson, of Ouse, Wayne Co., Ky. "Could not do my work part of the time. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and felt as well as I ever did. I have also used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for ulceration of the throat with good results and half of one bottle cured my throat which I could scarcely swallow."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, free on receipt of stamps for mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

APING TRACY.

A dispatch from Porterville, Cal., says: James McKenney, who served five years for assault with a deadly weapon and about a year ago shot and killed Tom Sears, a fugitive from justice. He has shot five men, almost mortally wounding one William Lyon, whose abdomen and legs are filled with buckshot; filling the right arm of George Burrows, a printer, with shot, sending a bullet into the mouth of Deputy Marshal Willis, another into the arm of Deputy Constable Tompkins, and a shot into the arm of W. B. West, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. McKenney, who had been drinking, was making gun play in Scotty's chophouse, Scotty, who had a gun, dropped it, the gun going off. McKenney then fired his gun several times. City Marshal Howell and Deputy Willis went to arrest McKenney and McKenney immediately opened fire. Lyon received one of the stray bullets in his arm. Willis and Howell returned the fire, emptying their revolvers, as did McKenney. McKenney followed up McKenney, striking him on the head with his cane. McKenney shot Willis in the mouth. He then held up Frank Butler for a team, and, driving down Main street, shot at everybody he saw, hitting Burrows and West before leaving town. He shouted to a friend: "They can send the whole town after me. I'll die game. You talk about Tracy; he is not in it with me." He then drove off to the mountains. McKenney, who has a shotgun, rifle, and revolver, is a desperate character. Sheriff Parker and his deputies are in pursuit. McKenney was wounded in one leg.

LYNCHED BY NEGROES.—Four negroes, Tom Patterson, Webster Edwards, Sam Peterson, and Elijah McCloskey, all small farmers, residing at Jones Bayou in the vicinity of Shreveport, La., constituted themselves into a lynch party a few nights ago, and after riddling the body of Russell Taylor, a negro horse thief, with bullets, dragged the body to the Red River and hurled it in. The affair has been just brought to light. Three of the negroes have been placed under arrest on the charge of murder. They were brought to Shreveport and are now in jail there. The men claim that they were conveying Taylor to jail when he attempted to escape. One of the party fired a shot at him, which took effect. He begged for his life, but the men had concluded to kill him, and they riddled his body with bullets. Becoming frightened at what they had done, they dragged his body to the Red River and threw it overboard. The police do not believe the escape story, and think that it was a private lynching. A posse is out searching for Edwards, the only one of the lynchers not yet arrested.

THE TROUBLES IN PARIS.—Dense crowds of nationalists and socialists filled the Rue Royal and Place de la Concorde, Paris, yesterday, and attempted to riot over the closing of the religious schools under the religious associations law. The mounted police charged the crowds at a trot and dispersed them without much trouble. A number of socialists seized a priest and attempted to throw him into the Seine. The trouble did not prove as serious as it was expected it would, owing to the stringent measures adopted by the police, which were energetically carried out. General Andre, minister of war, in a speech at La Roche Saturday night, declared that the government had decided to break up clerical tyranny and despotism, which hitherto has prevented France from progressing as it should. Nothing that the adversaries of the republic could do would prevent Prime Minister Combes from carrying out the policy for which he had assumed office.

WILL VISIT POSEN.—An appeal of Polish noblemen to Emperor William, asking him to postpone his visit to Posen in September in view of the strong feeling aroused by his anti-Polish speech at Marienburg, has influenced his majesty in the opposite direction. The Posen correspondents of several Berlin papers assert that the Emperor has refused to confirm the programme of festivities arranged in his honor. He has expressed his desire to enter Posen at the head of his troops, 90,000 of whom will attend the autumn maneuvers. It is his intention to show the population that he is master. An enormous detective and police force will be present on the occasion of his visit. The regulations forbid the opening of windows and the presence of sightseers on balconies. The workmen now on strike threaten to make demonstrations. The Polish committee advises the population to stay quietly at home.

REGION OF TERROR.—The rioting which occurred at Lansford, Pa., Saturday evening has had the effect of awakening the citizens to action, and unless order is restored it is probable that another appeal will be made to the governor to send troops. All Saturday night crowds of strikers thronged the streets. The leaders of the strikers seemed unable to hold the strikers in check, and at times it was feared the mob would make an attack upon the homes of several non-strikers. The town authorities were powerless to act, as they were unable to secure any men to act as officers. As a consequence citizens were held up on the streets and assaulted, and the town was in a state of terror all night. Governor Stone is being soundly criticized for not investigating the situation. It is held that the town is at the mercy of the strikers, and that a portion of the citizens are in danger of their lives.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

MOTHER ALWAYS KEEPS IT HANDY.
"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. (To suffer the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

The "Dixie" Canopy is no experiment, but has stood the test for years, improvements having been made each year, until we can say without any fear of contradiction that it is the most perfect mosquito canopy ever put before the American people. It is easily attached to any style of Wood, Brass, Iron or Folding Bed without defacing the same.

We wish to call special attention to the size of the COILED SPRING of the Dixie Canopy Frame. It is made large enough that constant use will not weaken it and cause the frame and net to hang out over the bed, instead of going back against the headboard, entirely out of the way.
